

Outstanding Women of Kansas Awards Terms & Conditions

The following are the terms and conditions of entry to the Awards. By submitting entries to the competition, you assent that you have read and agree to abide by these terms and conditions.

Acceptance of Awards Correspondence

Every entrant must submit an email address for single point of contact. The Board and/or Awards Committee will disseminate any information related to the Awards or the disposition of entries submitted utilizing the email address you provide. We will send regular email correspondence to you, especially after Finalists are announced. You agree to:

- Whitelist the email addresses Info@19thCentennial.com, ExecDir@19thCentennial.com, and President@19thCentennial.com and
- Read all email correspondence from us promptly and respond as requested or required in a timely manner.

Maintenance of Your Entry Information

Your entry-submission at <https://19thCentennial.com/Awards> website will contain your contact information, including your name, postal mailing address, email address, and telephone number. You agree to maintain the information in this entry-submission and update it if necessary, by emailing ExecDir@19thCentennial.com.

Final Decision

In the event of a dispute as to the category in which an entry(s) will be judged, the decision of the Awards Committee will prevail. Judges may recommend that an entry be switched to a different category, and at their discretion the Awards Committee may change an entry's category. Any uploaded documents submitted as part of your entry will not be returned.

Must Be Present To Win

Award winners are strongly encouraged to be present during the celebration held August 15 – 19, 2020 in Wichita, Kansas, and are required to be present at the Awards Banquet on August 24, 2020 to accept their award.

Publication of Winning Entries

The full-text of Award-winning entries will be published on the 19th Amendment Celebration web site, social media pages, and media outlets around the State approximately one month after the final results are
